Subject: Meeting with OR's Gov Office in DC on May 8th

FYI--Wanted to give you a heads up that we just found out this morning that Richard Whitman, with OR's Gov's Office, will be in DC next week and has requested to meet with NOAA about CZARA and another issue around the Columbia River.

Given his schedule and ours, we had a very narrow window of availability. The meeting has been set for 10:00-11:00am in the Commerce building downtown. I believe Joelle, me and potentially John King, our Acting Office Deputy Director, will attend to speak on CZARA.

EPA HQ folks, we welcome you to join us in person. I haven't been given a room number yet but when I do, will pass along. I believe folks are seeing about potential for a call-in too if EPA R10 wants to wake up bright an early.

We can discuss more during the call tomorrow.

Allison
